Lilith Young Leaders Application 2015

The Lilith 400 Young Leaders Program is a six-day leadership and personal development program that we pair with one to one mentorship from women in a variety of fields. Our audience of highly motivated emerging female leaders are drawn from some of the most outstanding high schools throughout the world. These dynamic and engaging young women will be chosen to participate based on their outstanding accomplishments, compassion for others and their desire to lead with purpose and conviction. This innovative and unique program hosted by Lilith Professional™ supports ambitious future female leaders interested in exploring dynamic careers and developing a personal plan and supportive network to achieve their dreams. Lilith Professional strives to provide financial assistance for participants with demonstrated financial need.
