About Ronnalee McMahon

Ronnalee McMahon, Founder of Lilith Professional, is a nationally recognized specialist in the field of leadership and mentorship for women.

Driven by her desire to create better lives and increased opportunities for women, Ronnalee founded Lilith Professional in 2008.

In 2004, she was inspired to help marginalized women who were internationally educated or trained find meaningful work in their chosen field. She designed a professional development and formal mentoring program and made top performing female leaders available to them as mentors and role models. Inspired by the progress made by these women and the dozens of women whom she worked alongside in laws firms, Ronnalee founded Lilith Professional to advance female lawyers and self funded a mentorship program to help them reach their full potential.

Under her leadership, Lilith Professional has been expanded to include women in all professional fields and across industries with an emphasis on law, engineering, accounting and finance. Lilith has grown from eight participating companies in 2008 to 71 companies in 2018.

Ronnalee is a graduate of Leadership Calgary and past board member for Future Generations Canada and Calgary Girls School.

Hear what past participants from our programs have to say:

"The Lilith Leadership Program is diverse in content and varied in delivery, introducing key aspects of leadership development to the protégées. The mentorship and program provides an excellent forum for mentors to contribute to the evolving landscape for women, sharing experiences, which can break down pre-conceived barriers for women to advance as leaders in our workplace and the community. I highly recommend the Lilith Leadership Program."

-Sue Riddell Rose,
CEO, Perpetual Energy

"In the last year, I have had the privilege of being part of the Lilith Professional Mentorship program as a mentor. Working with an enormously talented protégé like mine has been very uplifting. Lilith Professional plays a vital role in building strong and economically viable companies and organizations by providing a platform for high performing women aspiring to leadership positions to connect and learn from seasoned leaders outside their own organization. I believe that Lilith Professional can deliver the results that are required to develop the next generation of female leaders and I am pleased to be part of the effort."

-Vineeta Maguire,
Lilith Mentor, VP Supply Management,
Encana

"One of the things I found most helpful was when my mentor shared her career journey with me. It wasn't as important to know what she did, as it was to learn how she made her decisions regarding each career move. Learning about how opportunities arose, how she weighed these opportunities, what she struggled with and ultimately how she capitalized on them, all helped me better understand the opportunities I have before me."
